

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY 2020

Welcome to the New England Regional Art Museum

The safety and security of our visitors is of principal importance to us as we protect our valuable collection.

When on NERAM premises you must:

- Always conduct yourself responsibly and be respectful to others, in a manner that does not interfere, disrupt, or offend other persons on NERAM premises.
- Always comply with any reasonable requests made by NERAM staff upon entry or for the duration of your visit while on NERAM premises.
- Wear footwear at all times.
- Ensure children under 16 years are accompanied by an adult while at NERAM and are supervised at all times.

When on NERAM premises you must not:

- use flash photographic equipment without the express permission of NERAM staff;
- use photographic or recording equipment in areas where this has been restricted;
- touch, or in any other way, interfere with objects or displays unless indicated;
- smoke anywhere indoors, or outdoors;
- eat or drink in gallery spaces or other places where this is restricted; or
- bring animals on NERAM premises, with the exception service animals such as guide dogs.
- Bring wet umbrellas past the entry space where there is a designated area for temporary placement.
- Bring flowers or other flora into the gallery spaces without the express permission of NERAM staff.

The following items are prohibited on NERAM premises:

- any kind of knife, real or toy weapon or other item or substance restricted by law;
- oversized bags, backpacks, parcels or other containers;
- tripods, aerosol containers, metal tip umbrellas, balloons;
- any other item which in the discretion of NERAM staff is considered capable of being used to cause damage to or conceal a collection object for removal.

NERAM reserves the right to:

- Request that bags are cloaked at front counter if deemed oversized;
- exclude or remove the public or any other person from any part of the building or site;
- inspect any bag, luggage or object, however described, upon entry to and before leaving NERAM;
- use Security Closed Circuit Television cameras throughout NERAM; and
- prohibit any other personal items it deems necessary.

If you have any concerns regarding these Conditions of Entry please talk to one of our NERAM staff members at the front desk. You can also provide feedback via email on office@neram.com.au.
