

ELECTION OF BOARD MEMBERS New England Regional Art Museum Ltd

Annual General Meeting
Thursday 22 May 2025

NERAM Ltd currently has 4 directors who are seeking re/election.

3 directors seeking re-election

Nominations have been received from:

Pat Bradley

Nominated by: Robert Clarke

Seconded by: Kim Taylor

Biography: Business Manager at the Armidale School

Qualifications: BE(Mining)(Hons) (Syd)

Mr Patrick Bradley AFSM is an honours graduate Mining Engineer, Pat was employed as engineer and mine manager in underground hard rock mining for over twenty years. In 2002 he left the mining industry to take on the role of Business Manager at The Armidale School and is responsible for all of the various day to day operational, financial and property matters, reporting to the Headmaster and the Board.

Pat has also been a member of the Board of Phoenix Foundry since February 2013. A volunteer with the NSW Rural Fire Service for over twenty years and as Group Captain in the New England Zone since 2009, Pat was awarded the Australian Fire Service Medal in the 2015 Queen's Birthday Honours list for his work in training, member representation and incident management within the Service. He is involved with a number of other community organisations, such as Armidale Drama and Musical Society and Opera New England, where he assists with sound, lighting and with the engineering and construction of theatre sets, particularly those which use mobile or powered set elements.

Geraldine Perkins

Nominated by: Robert Clarke

Seconded by: Kim Taylor

Biography: Creative communications specialist

Geraldine Perkins is a communications specialist with an excellent record of branding and marketing success through website management, social media communications, and email marketing efforts. She has expert skills in Adobe Creative Suite and content management systems. Geraldine is a great team player accustomed to working with external consultants. Geraldine grew up in Armidale and established a love of the Hinton Collection at the Armidale Teachers' College which she would visit on weekends.

Paul Gaddes

Nominated by: Robert Clarke

Seconded by: Kim Taylor

Biography: Councillor, Armidale Regional Council

Qualifications: Bachelor of Engineering (Hons.) in Aerospace Engineering – University of New South Wales, Australia, Post-Graduate Diploma in Retail Studies – University of Stirling, United Kingdom

Paul Gaddes is global technology professional with 25+ years of experience in driving innovation & change across highly competitive software and technology industries. Result-oriented, multi-market leader who leverages the ability to align the right people with the right projects to generate unparalleled results. Consistently delivers positive P&L performances. Excellent teambuilding and communications skills. Firsthand exposure to business operations in multiple global locations.

The following filled a casual vacancy during the year and is seeking election:

Adam Marshall

Nominated by: Robert Clarke

Seconded by: Kim Taylor

Adam Marshall is the Senior Manager of Government Relations at Origin Energy, bringing a wealth of experience from a distinguished career in public service. A former New South Wales Minister and Member of Parliament, Adam held multiple key portfolios including Minister for Agriculture, Minister for Western NSW, Minister for TAFE NSW (Assistant Minister for Skills), and Minister for Tourism and Major Events. He also served as Parliamentary Secretary for Regional Homes and Infrastructure, Northern NSW, and Renewable Energy. With a deep understanding of government, policy, and regional development, Adam is a respected leader in both the public and private sectors.